STATE OF MAINE

REPORT

OF THE

ATTORNEY GENERAL

for the calendar years
1951 - 1954

40 of the Revised Statutes which relates to a Commissioner of the Public Utilities Commission and the right to hold stock. That provision reads as follows:

“No member or employee of said commission shall have any official or professional connection or relation with or hold any stock or securities in any public utility . . . operating within this state. . .”

“Operating within this state” is the equivalent of “operating under the laws of this state” and, in legal intendment, to the phrase, “existing under the laws of this state”.

It would therefore be our opinion that a Commissioner should not hold stock in a public utility company doing business in this State or organized under and subject to the laws of this State.

Re: Out-of-State Residents Arrested for Speeding

We have your memo of March 17, 1953, in which you relate the following facts and ask whether or not an arrest for a misdemeanor can legally be made after a lapse of time such as occurred in this instance:—

“One of the officers in this troop stopped a resident of Canada for speeding. His intent was to obtain an immediate trial for this out-of-state resident. He asked the operator to drive a matter of a few miles to the nearest municipal court. Upon arriving in the city he found that both the Judge and the Recorder were out of town. The officer then informed the driver involved that he would have to place him under arrest and have him obtain bail, which was done

“The question has now come up as to whether or not the arrest was legal, since the officer did not inform the person involved until about 20 minutes after the offense occurred even though he was constantly within the officer’s sight while driving to the court room.”

There is no doubt that legally and morally an arresting officer is bound to act promptly at the time of the offense and would not be justified in permitting any time to intervene between the time of the offense and the time of the arrest which might not be interpreted to be a continued attempt on the part of the officer to make the arrest.

Under the factual situation outlined above, it is our opinion that the arrest could be legally made.
