To Doris St. Pierre, Secretary, Real Estate Commission
Re: Licenses

We have your inquiry relative to subsection 8 of Section 7 of Chapter 84, Revised Statutes of 1954:

"Is it necessary to issue a new license each time we are notified of a change in business address?"

The first sentence of the above cited subsection is as follows:

"Notice in writing shall be given to the commission by each licensee of any change of principal business location, whereupon the commission shall issue a new license for the unexpired period without charge."

In view of this provision we answer that it will be necessary to issue a new license without charge each time the principal business located of the licensee is changed during any licensing year.

Assistant Attorney General
