Dear Bob,

We have your letter of September 12, 1958, in which you ask, "Can a Deputy Sheriff be appointed a Justice of the Peace? or Notary Public?"

We draw your attention to Opinion of Justices.
3 Me. 484-487.

All opinions from this office have been consistent with the Opinion of Justices, and because of the almost similar powers held by both Justices of the Peace and Notaries Public, the same answer would probably apply to each office.

Very truly yours,

James Glynn Frost
Deputy Attorney General

Gentlemen:

I have a simple little question, the answer to which I can not find in the books:

Can a Deputy Sheriff be appointed a Justice of the Peace? or Notary Public?

Yours truly,

ROBERT A. MARDEN
