Attorney General

Bernard Goddard Retake Examination

After a careful examination of all of the correspondence and rulings made in the question of whether or not Mr. Goddard should be allowed a retake examination, I conclude and strongly recommend to the Commission that Mr. Goddard be allowed to submit the $10.00 examination fee and based on his previous application, be permitted to a retake examination. I base my conclusions particularly on the fact that Mr. Goddard had requested a continuance of his examination date and the Commission's letter of May 11, 1961.
