STATE OF MAINE

REPORT

OF THE

ATTORNEY GENERAL

for the calender years

1961 - 1962

Commissioner of Education have authority to inspect an academy in this State for the purpose of determining its educational adequacy.

Revised Statutes, chapter 41, section 98, contains ample authority to conduct such an inspection for the purpose of determining whether or not approval to the academy should be granted.

RICHARD A. FOLEY

Assistant Attorney General

To: Earle R. Hayes, Executive Secretary, Maine State Retirement System

Re: Disability Benefits with Regard to Retirement

You have asked a question relative to the retirement of a person who retired on disability benefits in 1951, a few months later returned to work after age 55, and now is to retire because of age. The question is whether or not the Board can allow the person to repay to the system the amount of disability benefits she received in 1951 and retire under the general retirement provisions at a larger monthly retirement benefit.

The answer is "No."

Chapter 63-A, section 8, provides in part:

"Should a disability beneficiary be restored to service and should his annual earnable compensation then or at any time thereafter be equal to or greater than his average final compensation at retirement, his retirement allowance shall cease, the beneficiary shall again become a member of the retirement system, and he shall contribute thereafter at the same rate he paid prior to his retirement. Anything in this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding, any prior service certificate on the basis of which his service was computed at the time of his former retirement shall be restored to full force and effect, and in addition, upon his subsequent retirement he shall be credited with all the service as a member creditable to him at the time of his former retirement; but should he be restored to membership after attainment of the age of 55, his retirement allowance upon subsequent retirement shall not exceed the sum of the retirement allowance which he was receiving immediately prior to his last restoration to membership and the retirement allowance that may have accrued to him on account of membership service since his last restoration to membership." (Emphasis supplied)

This provision of the law is very clear as to the method of determining the amount of retirement benefits available to the person. The law contemplates the possibility of a disability beneficiary being restored to service. Therefore, the Board cannot claim an "error" to be corrected under section 13, subsection VIII or section 19.
