Dr. Kermit S. Nickerson, Commissioner

Education

John W. Benoit, Assistant

Attorney General

Teacher Retirement

In answer to your memo of November 5, 1963, relative to a memorandum issued January 25, 1952, by James G. Frost, then Assistant Attorney General, please be advised that this office reaffirms that memorandum. We refer, with particularity, to that language in the memorandum indicating that "we do not feel free to render opinions relative to the method of issuing contracts to teachers under regulations of superintending school committees.

John W. Benoit
Assistant Attorney General
