Office of Energy Resources

Robert J. Stolt, Assistant

Attorney General

Conflict of Interest

Thank you for your letter dated February 28, 1975, inquiring whether or not a conflict of interest will exist if you organize and invest in a Maine wood fuel industry.

While the question you pose is extremely broad, it is my general opinion that no conflict will exist if, prior to engaging in such activity, you have resigned as Director of the Office of Energy Resources and all information used by you in this endeavor is and has been freely accessible to the public.
