Amendment Notes

Each Article of the amendments is identified by the Resolve proposing its submission for adoption. The placement of each in the Constitution identifies it in the arrangement made pursuant to Section 6 of Article X. Parentheses indicate that the section identified has been repealed, or omitted as not in force.

The present codification, based upon the 1973 codified text prepared by Chief Justice Armand A. Dufresne, Jr., encompasses Articles CXXI through CXLVIII of the amendments.

Pursuant to the obligation under Article X, Section 6 to omit all sections, clauses, and words not in force, the codifier has omitted the next to the last paragraph of Article II, Section 1, reading as follows:

No person shall have the right to vote or be eligible to office under the Constitution of this State, who shall not be able to read the Constitution in the English language, and write his name; provided, however, that this shall not apply to any person prevented by a physical disability from complying with its requisitions, nor to any person who had the right to vote on the fourth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

Under Section 201 of the Voting Rights Act Amendments of 1970, Congress suspended for a five-year period all literacy tests and similar voting eligibility requirements imposed by any State, and the Act was declared constitutional in Oregon v. Mitchell, 400 U.S. 112 (1970). The Voting Rights Act was further amended in 1975 to make the suspension permanent. See 42 U.S.C.A. § 1973aa (1981).

ARTICLE CLI

Limiting the Life of Authorized Bonds.

Section 14 of Article IX of the Constitution is amended to read:

'Section 14. The credit of the State shall not be directly or indirectly loaned in any case, except as provided in sections 14-A, 14-C, 14-D and 14-E¹. The Legislature shall not create any debt or debts, liability or liabilities, on behalf of the State, which shall singly, or in the aggregate, with previous debts and liabilities hereafter incurred at any one time, exceed $2,000,000, except to suppress insurrection, to repel invasion, or for purposes of war, and except for temporary loans to be paid out of money raised by taxation during the fiscal year in which they are made; and excepting also that whenever two thirds of both Houses shall deem it necessary, by proper enactment ratified by a majority of the electors voting thereon at a general or special election, the Legislature may authorize the issuance of bonds on behalf of the State at such times and in such amounts and for such purposes as approved by such action; but this shall not be construed to refer to any money that has been, or may be deposited with this State by the Government of the United States, or to any fund which the State shall hold in trust for any Indian tribe. Whenever ratification by the electors is essential to the validity of bonds to be issued on behalf of the State, the question submitted to the electors shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth the total amount of bonds of the State outstanding and unpaid, the total amount of bonds of the State authorized and unissued, and the total amount of bonds of the State contemplated to be issued if the enactment submitted to the electors be ratified. For any bond authorization requiring ratification of the electors pursuant to this section, if any bonds have not been issued within five years of the date of ratification, then those bonds may not be issued after that date. Within two years after expiration of that five-year period, the Legislature may extend, by a majority vote, the five-year period for an additional five years or may deauthorize the bonds. If the Legislature fails to take action within those two years, the bond issue shall be considered to be deauthorized and no further bonds may be issued. For any bond authorization in existence on November 6, 1984, and for which the five-year period following ratification has expired, no further bonds may be issued unless the Legislature, by November 6, 1986, reauthorizes those bonds, by a majority vote, for an additional five-year period; failing which all bonds unissued under those
