The Legislature recognizes the need to equip those charged with the responsibility of effectuating its intent with broad discretion and flexibility as well as with funds. It expressly emphasizes that the power of the State should be exercised with caution and fairness as well as with courage and imagination.

Sec. 2. Acquisition of interests in land and water. The Commissioner of the Department of Inland Fisheries and Game shall from time to time acquire on behalf of the State of Maine lands and water or any interest therein by gift, devise, lease or purchase. Moneys from the fund established may be used for such lands and waters or rights therein and any incidental expenses incurred in the acquisition of such lands, waters and rights.

Sec. 3. Considerations. In making such acquisitions of interests in lands and waters, the Commissioner of Inland Fisheries and Game shall consider and place importance upon future as well as present needs for wintering, resting, feeding and nesting areas for wildlife as well as areas where those interested in wildlife may have access. Such acquisitions may include, but shall not be limited to, deer yards, salt marshes, fresh marshes, stream borders, nesting islands, dams, water rights and abandoned farmlands.

Sec. 4. Rules and regulations. The commissioner may from time to time establish such rules and regulations with respect to any such acquisition as he may deem necessary.

Sec. 5. Improvements. The commissioner may carry on any development work he feels necessary for the enhancement of the value of any acquisition for wildlife and such development work may be paid out of the proceeds of the fund.

Said bonds shall be deemed a pledge of the faith and credit of the State. Said bonds shall not run for a longer period than 20 years from the date of the original issue thereof. The Treasurer of State is authorized to invest the proceeds of the sale of the bonds during the period when the proceeds are not needed for the purposes set forth in this Act and the interest therefrom shall be paid into the fund created by section 6.

Sec. 8. Records of bonds issued to be kept by State Auditor and Treasurer. The State Auditor shall keep an account of such bonds, showing the number and amount of each, the date when payable and the date of delivery thereof to the Treasurer of State, who shall keep an account of each bond, showing the number thereof, the name of the person to whom sold, the amount received for the same, the date of sale and the date when payable.
