Notes of General Interest

Due to purging the registered voter files annually, figures may vary substantially between the Primary and General Elections.

Penobscot County:

Hampden maintained one voting place during the Primary Elections of 1992. Prior to the General Election, the municipality incorporated two voting places, Precinct 1 and Precinct 2. Both precincts are comprised of Senate District 9 and House District 113.

Penobscot County:

The 1992 General Election was the first time that the Unorganized Townships of Indian Purchase T3 and T4 had a combined printed paper ballot reflecting the townships' names. Their registered voters actually vote in the Town of Millinocket. The two townships and Millinocket are located in a different representative districts "plus" Millinocket's voters use the Optech III tabulating device which requires a specially designed ballot. Therefore, the townships appear in the enrolled and registered voters booklet for the first time reflecting only General Election information.

Piscataquis County:

The Unorganized Township of T1 R9 votes in Millinocket and had its first individual paper ballot at the 1992 General Election. The township and Millinocket each have different representative districts. The township's information only reflects the General Election.

Somerset County:

The Forks Plantation did not complete and submit the registered voter breakdown information on behalf of the Primary Election.

York County:

Biddeford - Ward 2 encompassed only Representative District 12 for the Primary Elections. The ward was split and encompassed both Representative Districts 12 and 13 for the General Election.
