RESOLVES

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-third Legislature

1947

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

of

Governor Horace Hildreth

From May 24, 1945 to May 12, 1947

(as reported to the Revisor of Statutes)

of War," the Governor of the State of Maine on October 9, 1942, issued Executive Order No. 17, promulgating the following rule and regulation:

"The operation of any vehicle on any public highway, street, or way in the State of Maine, at a speed in excess of thirty-five miles per hour is deemed to be at a speed greater than is reasonable and proper under conditions now existing, having due regard for the provisions of R. S. 1930, Chapter 29, Section 69 (a), and is, therefore, hereby prohibited."

Whereas, there appears to be no further necessity for continuing in force said Executive Order No. 17,

Now, therefore, I, Horace Hildreth, Governor of the State of Maine, do hereby rescind said Executive Order No. 17, such rescission to take effect at midnight of March 31, 1946.

HORACE HILDRETH,
Governor of Maine.

March 19, 1946.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
Augusta, Maine

Executive Order—No. 45

Whereas, under Section 1 of Chapter 305 of the Public Laws of 1941, approved January 21, 1942, and entitled "An Act to Create the Maine Civilian Defense Corps and Provide for the Safety of the State in Time of War," the Governor of the State of Maine on April 10, 1942, issued Executive Order No. 7, promulgating the following rule and regulation:

"The sale or use of fireworks in the State of Maine is hereby prohibited for the duration of this Act, except that fireworks may be sold for use at public exhibitions in connection with fairs, carnivals and other public celebrations, provided an expert is secured to fire them, and provided further, that written permission to display such fireworks is received from the Chief of the Fire Department, or in towns where there is no Fire Department, from the Board of Selectmen.

"No public exhibition of fireworks shall be made under the terms of this regulation except between the hours of seven P. M. to twelve midnight, Eastern Standard Time."

And, whereas, there appears to be no further necessity for continuing in force said Executive Order No. 7,

Now, therefore, I, Horace Hildreth, Governor of the State of Maine, do hereby rescind said Executive Order No. 7, such rescission to take effect at midnight of April 22, 1946.

HORACE HILDRETH,
Governor of Maine.

April 10, 1946.

Executive Order—No. 46

Whereas, under authority of Section 1 of Chapter 305 of the Public Laws of 1941, approved January 21, 1942, the Governor is empowered and directed to provide for the security, health, and welfare of the people of the State; and

Whereas, by Section 87 of Chapter 34 of the Revised Statutes of 1944, it is provided that “No person, firm, or corporation shall between the 15th day of May and the 1st day of October following, ship, transport, offer for shipment or transportation either directly or indirectly any clams, quahaugs, or mussels either in the shell or shucked taken from the clam flats of Washington, Hancock, Knox, and Waldo counties beyond the limits of the state, and/or to the counties of Sagadahoc, Cumberland, Lincoln, and York; provided, however, that an exception shall be made to clams, quahaugs, or mussels which have been canned, packed, or barreled between the 1st day of October and the 15th day of May . . .” and

Whereas, representations have been made to me which would justify an extension of time so that the shipment or transportation of clams, quahaugs or mussels either in the shell or shucked taken from said areas should be permitted beyond May 15, 1946, and up to June 14, 1946, and the Commissioner of Sea and Shore Fisheries having recommended that such action be taken;

Now, therefore, I, Horace Hildreth, Governor of Maine, by virtue of the authority vested in me by said Chapter 305 of the Public Laws of 1941,
