STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
SIXTY-ONE

AN ACT Regulating the Digging of Clams in Wells, York County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1959, c. 154, Chapter A, § 1, sub-§III-A, additional. Section 1 of Chapter A of chapter 154 of the private and special laws of 1959 is amended by adding a new subsection III-A, to read as follows:

'III-A. License required to dig or take clams in Wells. No person shall, in the Town of Wells in the County of York, dig or take clams unless license has been granted to him by the municipal officers of said town, who are authorized to grant and issue such licenses and fix the fee therefor. No license shall be granted or issued except to a resident of said town. Nothing herein shall prohibit any resident from digging and taking clams for food for himself and family without license, or shall prohibit a riparian owner of shores or flats in said town from digging and taking from his own shores or flats clams for food for himself and family.'
