Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Review of Forestry Department laws. The Forest Commissioner is authorized, during the fiscal years commencing July 1, 1961 and terminating June 30, 1963, to study the present general provisions of the statutes relating to the Forestry Department, specifically the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 36, and any other chapters or sections of the laws pertaining to the Forestry Department, and to report to the next regular session of the Legislature such changes and amendments as may be necessary or desirable to consolidate such statutes to make such statutes more readily understandable, workable and useful to the persons affected thereby.
