AN ACT Defining Residence of Military Personnel for Mortgage Purposes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 119, § 9, amended. Section 9 of chapter 119 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by chapter 383 of the public laws of 1957, is further amended by adding after the first paragraph, a new paragraph, as follows:

‘Members of the United States Armed Forces, stationed either permanently or temporarily within the State of Maine, shall be considered a resident, for the purposes of this section only, of the municipality in which the federal reservation at which he is stationed is located if he resides on such reservation; or a resident of the municipality in which he maintains a home if he does not live on such reservation. If the member of the Armed Forces resides on the reservation and the said reservation is situated within the boundaries of more than one municipality then he may be considered a resident of any such municipality.’

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 178, § 1, amended. Section 1 of chapter 178 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding after the first paragraph, a new paragraph, to read as follows:

‘Members of the United States Armed Forces, stationed either permanently or temporarily within the State of Maine, shall be considered a resident, for the purposes of this section only, of the municipality in which the federal reservation at which he is stationed is located if he resides on such reservation; or a resident of the municipality in which he maintains a home if he does not live on such reservation. If the member of the Armed Forces resides on the reservation and the said reservation is situated within the boundaries of more than one municipality then he may be considered a resident of any such municipality.’
