Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Study of property tax administration. The State Tax Assessor is directed to make a study of the administration of the property tax in this State, including administration at both state and local levels, and the relationship between the State Bureau of Taxation and local assessing officers; and to report to the 101st Legislature the results of such study, together with recommendations for improvement in the administration of such taxes and for amendments and additions to existing statutes intended to facilitate such improvement in administration.
