	<hr/> $48.13	<hr/> $32.00		<hr/> $80.13

STATEMENT OF FACTS

During the summer of 1958, 6 Canadian residents, gainfully employed in Maine, were convicted of operating motor vehicles in Maine without license or registration. They were properly registered in Canada. The convictions were in error. Some 100 or more, knowing of these conditions, registered their cars in Maine.

The purpose of this resolve is to reimburse these Canadians for the money paid under a mistaken interpretation of the law. These 2 Canadians were not on the list of those authorized a refund by chapter 78 of the resolves of 1959.
