HARVEY R. PEASE, Clerk

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
SIXTY-ONE

AN ACT Relating to Sick Pay for County Clerical Help.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 89, § 255, amended. The last sentence of section 255 of chapter 89 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 8 of chapter 372 of the public laws of 1959, is amended to read as follows:

'The county commissioners may establish reasonable office hours for offices in the county building, and provide for a county pay scale for clerical help, with paid vacations of 2 weeks per year after at least a year's service ~~and with sick pay up to 5 days a year after one year's service and one extra day per year thereafter, said sick pay not to exceed 10 days a year.~~

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 89, § 255, amended. Section 255 of Chapter 89 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 8 of chapter 372 of the public laws of 1959, is further amended by adding at the end a new paragraph to read as follows:

'Sick leave shall be earned by each county clerical employee at the rate of one working day for each completed full month of service. Unused sick leave may be accumulated to a total of 90 working days. When the maximum limitation has been accumulated, days that would normally thereafter be earned shall lapse. Every county treasurer shall maintain adequate records of the sick leave status of every county clerical employee.'
