AN ACT Repealing Law Regulating Change of Address of Voters.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 3, § 24-B, repealed. Section 24-B of chapter 3 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 1-C of chapter 204 of the public laws of 1959, is repealed as follows:

'See. 24-B. Change of address of voters. When a voter's street address is changed from one ward to another, he must give written notice to the board of registration of his new and former addresses before the close of registrations prior to election day. If he fails to notify the board of his change of address before the close of registrations, he must appear before the board on election day and notify it of his change of address. The board shall then correct his address on the voting list and issue him a certificate directed to the presiding officer of his new ward or precinct showing his new and former addresses. On presentation of the certificate to the presiding officer, it shall be attached to the check list and the voter may then vote.'
