Sec. 2. R. S., c. 29, § 13, sub-§ III, repealed and replaced. Subsection III of section 13 of chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes, as last repealed and replaced by section 2 of chapter 361 of the public laws of 1961, is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

‘III. Weekly benefit for partial unemployment. On and after April 1, 1959, each eligible individual who is partially unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a partial benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount less that part of his earnings paid or payable to him with respect to such week which is in excess of $10 plus any fraction of a dollar except that any amounts received from the Federal Government by members of the National Guard and Organized Reserve, including base pay and allowances, shall not be deemed wages for the purpose of this subsection.’

Sec. 3. R. S., c. 29, § 14, sub-§ III, repealed and replaced. Subsection III of section 14 of chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes, as last amended by section 3 of chapter 361 of the public laws of 1961, is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

‘III. Is able and available for work. He is able to work and is available for work at his usual or customary trade, occupation, profession or business or in such other trade, occupation, profession or business as his prior training or experience shows him to be fitted or qualified; and in addition to having complied with subsection II is himself making a reasonable effort to seek such work. An individual shall be ineligible to receive benefits for any week which is recognized as a vacation week for his grade, class or shift at the factory, mill, workshop or other premises where he is employed; except that an individual who is not entitled to pay for any such vacation week may qualify for benefits or credit for his waiting period if he is available for work and complies with the other conditions of eligibility; but no claimant shall be considered ineligible in any week of unemployment for failure to comply with this subsection if such failure is due to an illness or disability which occurs after he has registered for work and no work which would have been considered suitable at the time of his registration has been offered to him after the beginning of such illness or disability, the claimant shall furnish satisfactory evidence of such illness or disability in such form as the commission shall prescribe. A female claimant shall be ineligible to receive benefits, or waiting period credit, for any week wholly or partly within the 8 weeks immediately prior to the expected date of such individual's giving birth to a child and within the 4 weeks after the actual birth of her child;'

Sec. 4. R. S., c. 29, § 15, sub-§ I, repealed and replaced. Subsection I of section 15 of chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes, as last amended by section 4 of chapter 361 of the public laws of 1961, is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

I. Voluntarily leaves work. For the period of unemployment subsequent to his having left his regular employment voluntarily and without good cause attributable to such employment, or with respect to a female claimant who has voluntarily left work to marry, or to perform the customary duties of a housewife, or to leave the locale to live with her husband, or to a claimant who has voluntarily removed himself from the labor market where presently employed to an area where employment opportunity is less frequent, if so found by the commission, for not less than 5 nor more than 14 weeks in addition to the waiting period of one week, and his maximum benefit amount shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the number of such weeks of disqualification times his weekly benefit. A separation shall not be considered to be voluntary without good cause when it was caused by the illness or disability of the claimant and the claimant took all reasonable precautions to protect his employment status by having promptly notified his employer as to the reasons for his absence and by promptly requesting reemployment when he was again able to resume employment;'

Sec. 5. R. S., c. 29, § 15, sub-§ II, repealed and replaced. Subsection II of section 15 of chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes, as last amended by section 5 of chapter 361 of the public laws of 1961, is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

II. Discharge for misconduct. For the week in which he has been discharged for misconduct connected with his work, if so found by the commission, and for not less than 7 nor more than 14 weeks in addition to the waiting period of one week which immediately follows such discharge, and his maximum benefit amount shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the number of such weeks of disqualification times his weekly benefit amount;'

Sec. 6. R. S., c. 29, § 15, sub-§ III, amended. The first paragraph of subsection III of section 15 of chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes, as last amended by section 6 of chapter 361 of the public laws of 1961, is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'If he has refused to accept an offer of work for which he is reasonably fitted, or has refused to accept a referral to a job opportunity when directed to do so by a local employment office of this State or another state and the disqualification shall begin with the week in which the refusal occurred and shall continue for the duration of the period of unemployment during which such refusal occurred.'

Sec. 7. R. S., c. 29, § 15, sub-§ IV, amended. The first paragraph of subsection IV of section 15 of chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 7 of chapter 361 of the public laws of 1961, is further amended to read as follows:

'For any week with respect to which the commission finds that his total or partial unemployment is due to a stoppage of work which exists ~~or existed~~ because of a labor dispute at the factory, establishment or other premises at which he is or was last employed. This subsection shall not apply if it is shown to the satisfaction of the commission that:'

Sec. 8. R. S., c. 29, § 15, sub-§ V, amended. The first paragraph of subsection V of section 15 of chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes, as last amended by section 8 of chapter 361 of the public laws of 1961, is further amended to read as follows:

'For any week with respect to which he is receiving ~~is entitled to receive~~ or has received remuneration in the form of:'

Sec. 9. R. S., c. 29, § 15, sub-§ V, ¶ A, amended. Paragraph A of subsection V of section 15 of chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes, as last amended by section 9 of chapter 361 of the public laws of 1961, is further amended to read as follows:

'A. Dismissal wages or wages in lieu of notice ~~or terminal pay or vacation pay~~; or'

Sec. 10. R. S., c. 29, § 15, sub-§ VI, amended. Subsection VI of section 15 of chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes, as last amended by section 10 of chapter 361 of the public laws of 1961, is further amended to read as follows:

'VI. Has falsified. For any week for which the deputy finds that the claimant made a false statement or representation knowing it to be false or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact in his application to obtain benefits ~~and the disqualification shall continue until claimant shall have earned not less than $400 thereafter in subsequent employment and his maximum benefit amount shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the number of such weeks of disqualification times his weekly benefit amount.~~ In addition, if the deputy finds that the claimant did in fact knowingly accept benefits to which he was not entitled, he shall find the claimant ineligible to receive any further benefits for a ~~further~~ period of not less than 3 months nor more than one year.'

Sec. 11. R. S., c. 29, § 15, sub-§ VII, amended. Subsection VII of section 15 of chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes, as last amended by section 11 of chapter 361 of the public laws of 1961, is further amended to read as follows:

'VII. Discharged for crime. For the period of unemployment next ensuing with respect to which he was discharged for conviction of felony or misdemeanor in connection with his work. The ineligibility of such individual shall continue for all weeks subsequent until such individual has thereafter earned not less than ~~$400~~ $300 in employment.'

Sec. 12. R. S., c. 29, § 3, sub-§ XXII, repealed. Subsection XXII of section 3 of chapter 29 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 12 of chapter 361 of the public laws of 1961, is repealed as follows:

~~'XXII. Regular employment. "Regular employment" means work at the individual's customary trade, occupation, profession or business as opposed to temporary or odd job employment.'~~
