AN ACT Relating to Violations of Law by Parolees of Reformatory for Men.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 27-A, § 15, amended. The last sentence of the first paragraph of section 15 of chapter 27-A of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 387 of the public laws of 1957 and as last repealed and replaced by section 28 of chapter 378 of the public laws of 1959, is amended to read as follows:

'If the board, after hearing, finds that the parolee has violated his parole or the law, it shall revoke his parole, set the length of time he shall serve of the unexpired portion of his sentence before he can again be eligible for hearing by the board, and remand him to the institution from which he was released; except, that when a parolee from the Reformatory for Men violates the law and is sentenced by the court to the Maine State Prison, any length of time set by the board to be served of the unexpired portion of his reformatory sentence may be served at the Maine State Prison.'
