STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
SIXTY-THREE

AN ACT Regulating the Taking of Clams in Wells, York County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1959, c. 154, Chapter A, § 4, sub-§ III, amended. Subsection III of section 4 of Chapter A of chapter 154 of the private and special laws of 1959, as repealed and replaced by chapter 42 of the private and special laws of 1961, is amended to read as follows:

III. License required to dig or take clams in Wells. No person shall, in the Town of Wells in the County of York, dig or take clams unless license has been granted to him by the municipal officers of said town, who are authorized to grant and issue such licenses and fix the fee therefor. No license shall be granted or issued except to a resident of said town. It is unlawful for any person to dig, take or have in his possession more than 2 bushels of clams in said town in any one day.

A. The possession limit shall not apply to the holder of a wholesale seafood dealer's and processor's license or a retail seafood dealer's license.'
