AN ACT Authorizing County Commissioners for York County to Make a Loan for Courthouse Addition.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. County commissioners to borrow money in a sum not to exceed $175,-000. The County of York, through its county commissioners, is empowered and authorized to erect and construct, by contracts or otherwise, an addition to the present courthouse situated at Alfred for the purpose of containing fireproof vaults for record books and indices of the registry of deeds and registry of probate, and for storage of municipal court files and records as said courts are de-activated, together with necessary adjacent work areas for employees of said departments and for the use of the general public, with such fixtures and equipment as shall be commensurate with said purposes; and for the foregoing purposes and in order to provide for the payment of said erection and construction, to borrow money in a sum not exceeding $175,000 and cause to be issued therefor, notes of said County of York or other obligations of said County of York, with coupons attached for interest at a rate not to exceed 4% per year, payable at regular periods not to exceed 30 years from their date. Said commissioners shall determine the amount, time of payment, rate of interest not exceeding 4% per year, whether interest shall be payable annually or semiannually, and form of said notes or obligations, and shall have power to determine whether all, or a portion of any notes or obligations issued hereunder, shall contain any provisions for calling the same, and may determine such call provisions, and shall also determine whether all, or any portion, of said notes or obligations, shall be in serial form or otherwise, and may issue the same from time to time as the money is needed to pay for the erection and construction under this act.

Sec. 2. Notes or obligations valid without obtaining consent of towns and cities. Said notes or obligations shall be valid without first obtaining the consent of the towns and cities of said County of York as provided in the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 89, sections 27 and 29, as amended.
