AN ACT Extending Jurisdiction of Courts in Probation Cases.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., T. 34, § 1632, amended. The first sentence of section 1632 of Title 34 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as follows:

‘A person on probation is under the ~~sole~~ jurisdiction of the court which ordered his probation and such other court which assumes jurisdiction as provided in section 1633.’

Sec. 2. R. S., T. 34, § 1633, amended. Section 1633 of Title 34 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding at the end, a new paragraph, as follows:

‘The State Probation and Parole Board may in its discretion report the alleged violation to any Superior Court or District Court. When such Superior Court or District Court deems it to be convenient in the administration of justice to entertain a petition for violation of probation, such court shall request from the clerk of the court in which the probationer was sentenced attested copies of the sentence of the court and any other documents in the case. Upon receipt of such request, it shall be the duty of the clerk to send forthwith the requested attested copies. The court may, after hearing, revoke or continue probation just as if it were the court that originally imposed sentence. The clerk shall thereupon forward to the clerk of the court that originally imposed sentence an attested copy of the petition for revocation and order pursuant thereto.’
