AN ACT Relating to Appointment, Rank and Duties of Assistant Adjutants General.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 25, § 712, amended. The 10th paragraph of section 712 of Title 25 of the Revised Statutes is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'The Adjutant General may appoint, subject to the approval of the Governor, an Assistant Adjutant General for Army National Guard and an Assistant Adjutant General for the Air National Guard, who may each hold the grade of brigadier general, to serve at his will and pleasure. The qualifications for these appointments shall be the same as those prescribed for the Adjutant General in section 710. Each Assistant Adjutant General shall be responsible for the general supervision of training and administration of the affairs of the Army National Guard and the Air National Guard respectively, and such other duties as are prescribed by the Adjutant General. The Adjutant General shall appoint one of the Assistant Adjutants General to serve as Deputy Adjutant General and such deputy, regardless of rank, shall have all the power and duties of the Adjutant General in the case of the absence of the Adjutant General or his inability to act, or in the case of vacancy in said office until such vacancy shall have been filled by the Commander in Chief, as provided by law.'
