S.
D. OF R.

SENATE AMENDMENT "A" to H. P. 369, L. D. 471, Bill, "An Act Relating to Retirement Benefits for Fish and Game Wardens and Coastal Wardens Under State Retirement System."

Amend said Bill by striking out all of sections 1 and 2 and inserting in place thereof the following:

"Sec. 1. R. S., T. 5, §1095, amended. The last sentence of the first paragraph of section 1095 of Title 5 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as follows:

'Anything to the contrary notwithstanding each member of the State Police, including the chief thereof, who became a member of that department subsequent to July 9, 1943, shall, beginning with the first full week after September 21, 1963, make an  $8\% / 7\frac{1}{2}\%$ <sup>a</sup> contribution of earnable compensation to the retirement system as long as he is employed.'

Sec. 2. R. S., T. 5, §1095, amended. Section 1095 of Title 5 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding after the first paragraph a new paragraph to read as follows:

'Anything to the contrary notwithstanding, each warden in the Department of Inland Fisheries and Game and each warden in the Department of Sea and Shore Fisheries shall, beginning the first full week after the effective date of this Act, make a  $7\frac{1}{2}\%$  contribution of earnable compensation to the retirement system as long as he is employed as a warden.'

Sec. 3. R. S., T. 5, §1121, sub-§1, D, additional. Subsection 1 of section 1121 of Title 5 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new paragraph D to read as follows:

"D. Any law enforcement officer in the Department of Inland Fisheries and Game and any law enforcement officer in the Department of Sea and Shore Fisheries may retire at attained age 50 or upon completion of 25 years of total creditable service as a law enforcement officer in the Department of Inland Fisheries and Game or a law enforcement officer in the Department of Sea and Shore Fisheries, whichever is the later. Retirement shall be compulsory at the attainment of age 60. Except that any law enforcement officer in the Department of Inland Fisheries and Game and any law enforcement officer in the Department of Sea and Shore Fisheries who will not attain the 25 years of creditable service at age 60 may be permitted to continue in his employment until age 63 in order to obtain the 25 years of creditable service necessary. The total amount of the service retirement allowance of a law enforcement officer retired in accordance with this paragraph shall be equal to  $\frac{1}{2}$  of his current annual salary."

Further amend said Bill by renumbering section 3 to be section 4.
