STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
SIXTY-FIVE

AN ACT Providing for Sunday Sales of Liquor.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 28, § 4, amended. The first paragraph of section 4 of Title 28 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as follows:

~~'No liquor shall be sold in this State on Sundays and no~~ licensee by himself, clerk, servant or agent shall between the hours of midnight and 6 a.m. sell or deliver any liquors, except no liquors shall be sold or delivered on Saturdays after 11:45 p.m. No liquor shall be sold in this State on Sundays, except that, subject to all other provisions of this Title, licensed hotels, restaurants, taverns and retail stores may sell liquor on Sundays between the hours of 1 p.m. and 12 a.m. according to the prevailing time in the State as shown in Title 1, section 151. Liquor may be sold on January 1st of any year from midnight to 2 a.m. unless January 1st falls on Sunday. Liquor may be sold in any municipality on the day of holding a general election or state-wide primary only after the closing of the polls in such municipality. No licensee shall permit the consumption of liquors on his premises on Sundays or after 15 minutes past the hours prohibited for sale thereof, except by bona fide guests in their rooms or except as otherwise provided. No liquor shall be sold in this State on May 30th prior to 12 noon. The hours of selling or delivering above referred to shall be United States Eastern Standard Time. Any person, except an officer in performance of his duties, who purchases liquor on Sunday, except as otherwise provided, in any retail store, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to the same penalty provided in this section for Sunday sale of liquor.'
