Whenever it shall appear to the council that the life, health, property or the public peace may be adversely affected because of actual or threatened national emergency, forces of the natural elements, fires, explosions, strikes, epidemics, civil strife or commotion, or any other circumstances hazardous or dangerous to life, limb or property, the council may make emergency appropriations.

To the extent that there are no available unappropriated revenues to meet such appropriations, the council may by emergency ordinance authorize the issuance of notes which may be renewed from time to time, but the emergency notes and renewals of any fiscal year shall be paid not later than the last day of the fiscal year next succeeding that in which the emergency appropriation was made.

The title of such bond ordinance may state the aggregate of the appropriation, instead of the respective amounts.

Sec. 1607. Form and content; average period of usefulness. If a bond ordinance combines 2 or more projects, it shall, in addition to determining the respective periods of usefulness, determine the average period, taking into consideration the respective amounts of bonds for the several projects.

Sec. 1612. Special debt statement. In connection with any bond ordinance and prior to the date of introduction thereof, the director of finance may prepare, swear to and file for public inspection in the office of the city clerk, a special debt statement which shall set forth the aggregate principal amount of all outstanding bonds and notes of the city, excepting tax anticipation notes; deductions permitted by the Constitution and general laws; the amount of the existing net indebtedness; the amount of the net indebtedness after the issuance of the bonds authorized by such bond ordinance; and the aggregate principal amount of bonds and notes which the city may issue pursuant to law.

Sec. 1613. Special debt statement presumed to be accurate. If the special debt statement provided for by section 1612 be filed pursuant to the said section and be approved by resolution of the council prior to the final passage of the bond ordinance by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of all the members of the council, such special debt statement shall be presumed to be accurate.

Sec. 1614. Legal effect of special debt statement. Sec. 1615. All bonds paid in annual installments. Bonds issued after the adoption of this charter shall be made payable in annual, serial and approximately equal installments as pertains to principal, and interest shall be made payable semiannually.

Sec. 1616. First annual installment. The first annual installment shall be paid not more than one year, or if the bonds are issued to fund notes, not more than 2 years after the date of final passage of the bond ordinance by virtue of which they are issued.

The last annual installment of each authorized issue of bonds shall be paid not later than the date of expiration of the period of usefulness of the project for the financing of which such bonds are issued, or of the average period of 2 or more combined projects, as determined in the bond ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

Sec. 1618. Period of usefulness computed from date of passage. The period of usefulness of each project and the average period in the case of 2 or more projects combined in one authorized issue, shall be computed from the date of final passage of the bond ordinance by virtue of which the bonds are issued.

Sec. 1619. Period of usefulness. Every issue of bonds shall be payable within a fixed term of years which shall in no case exceed 30 years.

Sec. 1620. Determination of period of usefulness. Within the foregoing maximum periods, bonds shall mature not later than the expiration of the period of probable usefulness of the capital project for which they are issued, as determined by the council and stated in the bond ordinance.

Sec. 1621. Determination of council conclusive. - (a) Any recitals or statements of fact contained in such bond ordinance, or in the preambles or recitals thereof, shall be deemed to be true for the purpose of determining the validity of the bonds thereby authorized and the city and all others interested shall forever thereafter be estopped from denying the same;

(b) Such bond ordinance shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly and regularly passed by the city and to comply with the provisions of this charter and of all laws; and

(c) The validity of such bond ordinance shall not thereafter be questioned by either a party plaintiff or a party defendant.

Sec. 1624. Payment of bonds and notes. The power and obligations of the city to pay any and all bonds and notes hereafter issued by it pursuant to this charter shall be unlimited and the city shall levy ad valorem taxes upon all the taxable property within the city for the payment of such bonds or notes and interest thereon, without limitation of rate or amount. The faith and credit of the city is hereby pledged for the payment of the principal of and the interest on all bonds and notes of the city hereafter issued pursuant to this charter, whether or not such pledge be stated in the bonds or notes or in the bond ordinance authorizing their issuance.
