STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
SIXTY-FIVE

AN ACT Repealing Application of Employment Security Law to Seasonal Employment.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 26, § 1251, repealed. Section 1251 of Title 26 of the Revised Statutes is repealed as follows:

~~§ 1251. Investigations; hearings; regulations~~

1. ~~Seasonal industry. As used in this section the term "seasonal industry" means an industry in which, because of the seasonal nature thereof it is customary to operate only during a regularly recurring period or periods of less than 40 weeks in a calendar year. The commission shall, after investigation and hearing, determine, and may thereafter from time to time redetermine, the longest seasonal period or periods during which, by the best practice of the industry in question, operations are conducted. Until such determination by the commission, no industry shall be deemed seasonal.~~

2. ~~Regulations. The commission shall prescribe fair and reasonable regulations applicable to the payment of benefits to individuals whose qualifying wages in whole or in part were earned in seasonal industries, to the period during which benefits shall be payable to them and to charges to be made to experience rating records or general funds as a result of benefits so paid.~~
