STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
SIXTY-SEVEN

AN ACT Relating to Waiver of Blood Test in Premarital Medical Examinations by District Court Judges.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., T. 22, § 1182, amended. The first sentence of section 1182 of Title 22 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as follows:

Because of emergency or other cause shown by affidavit or other proof, any Justice of the Superior Court, ~~or~~ judge of probate or judge of a District Court, if satisfied that the public health and welfare will not be injuriously affected thereby, may make an order, in his discretion, on joint application of both of the parties desiring the marriage license, dispensing with the requirements of section 1181 as to either or both of the parties, including the laboratory statement, or, if the statement or statements provided for by such section have been filed, extending the 30-day period following the examination and test to not later than a day specified, which shall be not more than 90 days after the examination and test.
