AN ACT Relating to Qualifications for Locomotive Engineer.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 35, § 1161-A, additional. Title 35 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new section 1161-A, to read as follows:

§ 1161-A. Engineer

It shall be unlawful for any person to run or operate a locomotive engine upon any division or subdivision of any railroad in the State unless such person has served at least 36 months as a helper or fireman, on a locomotive engine on that division or subdivision, or unless such person is under the personal direction of a qualified engineer.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as applying to the running or operating of light engines at division terminals by engine hostlers.

Any person violating, or any person requiring another person to violate this section, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100. Each violation shall be considered a separate offense.

This section shall apply to Class 1 railroads only.
