STATE OF MAINE
SENATE
104TH LEGISLATURE
FIRST SPECIAL SESSION

SENATE AMENDMENT "A" to S. P. 662, L.D. 1844, Bill, "AN ACT Giving Special Interim Legislative Investigating Committees Access to Certain Records."

Amend said Bill by striking out everything after the amending clause of section 1 and inserting in place thereof the following:

'Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the disclosure of information from records or files of the authority or the production of records or files of the authority to a special interim legislative investigating committee, or its agent, sitting in executive session, upon written demand from the chairman of the committee or any member of the committee designated by him and specifying the particular information required. Such public reports as may be issued by the committee on the basis of its investigation shall contain only information of a generalized nature in such a way as not to identify information as having been furnished by a particular tenant company or by particular persons in applications or reports submitted to the authority.'

Further amend said Bill by striking out everything after the amending clause in section 2 and inserting in place thereof the following:

'4. Information to legislative committees. The disclosure of information from records or files of the Tax Assessor or the production of records or files of the Tax Assessor to a special interim legislative investigating committee, or its agent, sitting in executive session, upon written demand from the chairman of the committee or any member of the committee designated by him, and specifying the particular information required. Such public reports as may be issued by the committee on the basis of its investigation shall contain only information of a generalized nature in such a way as not to identify information as having been furnished by a particular person or business entity.'

Further amend said Bill by striking out everything after the amending clause of section 3 and inserting in place thereof the following:

'Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the disclosure of information from records or files of the assessor or the production of records or files of the assessor to a special interim legislative investigating committee, or its agent, sitting in executive session, upon written demand from the chairman of the committee or any member of the committee designated by him, and specifying the particular information required. Such public reports as may be issued by the committee on the basis of its investigation shall contain only information of a generalized nature in such a way as not to identify information as having been furnished by a particular person or business entity.'
