STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
SEVENTY-ONE

AN ACT Relating to Service Retirement of Liquor Inspectors.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows.

Sec. 1. R. S., T. 5, § 1121, sub-§ 4, ¶ D, amended. The first sentence of Paragraph D of subsection 4 of section 1121 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, is further amended to read as follows:

Any member who is a liquor inspector, including the chief inspector, and in any case at least 25 years of creditable service in his respective capacity, may be retired on or after the attainment of age 55 years on a service retirement allowance, but must be retired at the attainment of age 65, which will be equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of his ~~average~~ current final compensation.

Sec. 2. R. S., T. 5, § 1121, sub-§ 4, ¶ D, amended. Paragraph D of subsection 4 of section 1121 of Title 5 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, is further amended by adding at the end the following new sentence:

Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, any liquor inspector who will not attain the 25 years of creditable service at age 65 may be permitted to continue in his employment until age 68 in order to obtain the 25 years of creditable service necessary.

STATEMENT OF FACT

The purpose of the bill is to permit certain liquor inspectors to continue employment until 25 years of service have been reached.
