§ 51. Short title

This chapter may be cited as the "Maine Civil Defense Act".

§ 52. Policy and purposes

The purpose of this chapter is to create the Bureau of Civil Defense, and to authorize the creation of local organizations for civil defense in the political subdivisions of the State; to confer upon the Governor and upon the executive heads of governing bodies of the political subdivisions of the State the emergency powers provided; and to provide for the rendering of mutual aid among the political subdivisions of the State and with other states with respect to the carrying out of civil defense functions.

It is further declared to be the purpose of this chapter and the policy of the State that all civil defense functions be coordinated to the maximum extent with the comparable functions of the Federal Government including its various departments and agencies, of other states and localities, and of private agencies of every type, to the end that the most effective preparation and use may be made of the nation's manpower, resources and facilities for dealing with any disaster or catastrophe that may occur.

§ 53. Definitions

As used in this chapter :

1. Civil defense. "Civil defense" shall mean the preparation for and the carrying out of all emergency functions, other than functions for which military forces are primarily responsible, to minimize and repair injury and damage resulting from disasters or catastrophes caused by enemy attacks, sabotage or other hostile action, or by fire, flood, earthquake or other natural causes. These functions include, without limitation, fire fighting services, police services, medical and health services, rescue, engineering, air raid warning services, communications, radiological, chemical and other special weapons defense, evacuation of persons from stricken areas, emergency welfare services (civilian war aid), economic stabilization, emergency transportation, existing or properly assigned functions of plant protection and other functions related to civilian protection, together with all other activities necessary or incidental to the preparation for the carrying out of the foregoing functions.

2. Local organization for civil defense. "Local organization for civil defense" shall mean an organization created in accordance with this chapter by state, county or local authority to perform local civil defense functions.

3. Political subdivision. "Political subdivision" includes counties, cities, towns, villages, townships, districts, authorities and other public corporations and entities whether organized and existing under charter or general law.

§ 54. Bureau of Civil Defense

The Bureau of Civil Defense, as heretofore established and hereinafter in this chapter called the "bureau," shall be under the supervision of the Director of the Bureau of Civil Defense, who hereinafter in this chapter shall be called the "director".

The director may employ such technical, clerical, stenographic, administrative and operative assistants and other personnel, subject to the Personnel Law, and make such expenditures on approval of the Adjutant General as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

The director, subject to the direction and control of the Adjutant General, shall be the executive head of the bureau and shall be responsible to the Adjutant General for carrying out the program for civil defense. He shall coordinate the activities of all organizations for civil defense within the State, and shall maintain liaison with and cooperate with civil defense and public safety agencies and organizations of other states, the Federal Government and foreign countries, and the political subdivisions thereof, and shall have such additional authority, duties and responsibilities as may be prescribed by the Adjutant General.

§ 55. Rules and regulations

The director shall make, amend or rescind, after public hearing thereon, notice of which has been duly advertised in the state paper, reasonable rules and regulations to carry out this chapter.

Such rules and regulations shall become effective when approved in writing by the Governor and Council and when a certified copy thereof has been filed with the Secretary of State. Any person aggrieved by any such rule or regulation, or any act or order of the director in enforcing any such rule or regulation, may appeal by filing in the Superior Court a complaint within 30 days, and the court may affirm or reverse the rule, regulation, act or order of the director and the decision of the court shall be final.

§ 56. Civil Defense Council

A Civil Defense Council, as heretofore established, shall be composed of 5 members. All members shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council. They shall serve during the pleasure of the Governor and Executive Council. The Adjutant General shall be a member ex officio. The members thereof shall serve without compensation, but, other than state officers, may be reimbursed for their reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duty. The Civil Defense Council shall meet as many times in each calendar year as it deems necessary and at the call of the chairman or the Director of the Bureau of Civil Defense.

The council shall advise the Governor and the director on all matters pertaining to civil defense. The council shall not interfere with any of the operational duties of the director which have been assigned to him by section 54. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to mean that the council cannot advise on such affairs, or that the creation of this council relieves the director of his responsibility for carrying out the civil defense program, pursuant to section 54.

§ 57. Emergency proclamation; Governor's powers

Whenever any disaster or catastrophe exists or appears imminent arising from attack, sabotage or other hostile action, or by fire, flood, earthquake or other natural causes, the Governor shall, by proclamation, declare the fact and that an emergency exists in any or all sections of the State. If the Governor is temporarily absent from the State or is otherwise unavailable, the next person in the State who would act as Governor if the office of Governor were vacant shall, by proclamation, declare the fact and that an emergency exists in any or all sections of the State. A copy of such proclamation shall be filed with the Secretary of State. The Governor, either directly or through the Adjutant General, shall have general direction and control of the bureau and shall be responsible for the carrying out of this chapter, and in the event of disaster or catastrophe beyond local control, the Governor may assume direct operational control over all or any part of the civil defense and public safety functions within the State.

In performing his duties under this chapter, the Governor, directly or through the Adjutant General, is authorized and directed to cooperate with all departments and agencies of the Federal Government, with the offices and agencies of other states and foreign countries, and the political subdivisions thereof, and with private agencies in all matters pertaining to the civil defense of the State and of the nation.

In performing his duties under this chapter, the Governor is further authorized and empowered:

1. Orders, rules and regulations. To make, amend and rescind the necessary orders, rules and regulations to carry out this chapter within the limits of the authority conferred upon him and not inconsistent with the rules, regulations and directives of the President of the United States or of any federal department or agency having specifically authorized civil defense functions;

2. Plans and program. To prepare a comprehensive plan and program for the civil defense of this State, such plan and program to be integrated into and coordinated with the civil defense plans of federal agencies and with the plans of other states and foreign countries, and the political subdivisions thereof, to the fullest possible extent, and to coordinate the preparation of plans and programs for civil defense by the political subdivisions of this State, such plans to be integrated into and coordinated with the civil defense plan and program of this State to the fullest possible extent;

3. Training and public information programs. In accordance with such plan and program for the civil defense of this State, and consistent with the civil defense plans, programs and directives of the Federal Government, to procure supplies and equipment, to institute training programs and public information programs, and to take all other preparatory steps including the partial or full mobilization of civil defense organizations in advance of actual disaster or catastrophe, to insure the furnishing of adequately trained and equipped forces of civil defense personnel in time of need;

4. Studies and surveys. To conduct such studies and surveys and to take such inventories of the industries, resources and facilities of this State as may be necessary to ascertain the capabilities of the State for civil defense, and to plan for the most efficient emergency use thereof, including emergency economic controls to insure adequate production and equitable distribution of essential commodities:

5. Mutual aid arrangements. On behalf of this State, to enter into mutual aid arrangements with other states and foreign countries, and the political subdivisions thereof, and to coordinate mutual aid plans between political subdivisions of this State;

6. Delegation of authority. To delegate any authority vested in him under this chapter, and to provide for the subdelegation of any such authority.

Whenever the Governor is satisfied that an emergency no longer exists, he shall terminate the proclamation by another proclamation affecting the sections of the State covered by the original proclamation, or any part thereof. Said proclamation shall be published in such newspapers of the State and posted in such places as the Governor, or the person acting in that capacity, deems appropriate.

§ 58. Eminent domain and compensation

When the Governor has issued a proclamation as provided for in section 57 and when thereafter in his judgment for the better protection and welfare of this State or its inhabitants, the situation so requires as a matter of public necessity or convenience, he may take possession of any property, real or personal, located within this State for public uses in furtherance of this chapter.

If real estate is seized under this section, a declaration of the property seized, containing a full and complete description, shall be filed with the register of deeds in and for the county in which the seizure is located and a copy of said declaration furnished the owner.

If personal property is seized under this section, there shall be entered upon a docket containing a permanent record, a description of such personal property and its condition when seized, and there shall be furnished to the owner of such seized property a true copy of the docket recording.

The Governor shall, with the approval of the Executive Council, award reasonable compensation to the owners of the property which he may take under this section and for its use and for any injury thereto or destruction thereof caused by such use.

Any owner of property of which possession has been taken under this section to whom no award has been made or who is dissatisfied with the amount awarded his as compensation may bring an action in the Superior Court in the county in which he lives or has a usual place of business or in the County of Kennebec to have the amount to which he is entitled by way of damages determined. The plaintiff may bring such action within 6 years after the date when possession of the property was taken under this section, except that if the owner of the property is in the military service of the United States at any time during which he should otherwise have brought his action, he may bring the same within 6 years after his discharge from the said military service. The plaintiff and the State shall severally have the right to have such damages assessed by a jury.

In the event, by reason of the death of the owner of property seized under this section, he is unable to bring or to continue the action provided for, the action may be brought or continued by his executor or administrator, as the case may be.

§ 59. Local organization for defense

Each political subdivision of this State is authorized to establish and shall establish a local organization for civil defense in accordance with the state civil defense plan and program. Each local organization for civil defense shall have a director, who shall be appointed by the executive officer or governing body of the political subdivision, and who shall have direct responsibility for the organization, administration and operation of such local organization for civil defense, subject to the direction and control of such executive officer or governing body.

Political subdivisions may accept the services of the State Personnel Board and adopt the regulations thereof for the purpose of qualifying federal administrative funds. The State Personnel Board may enter into agreements with political subdivisions of the State for the purpose of furnishing merit system coverage for civil defense employees, or employees of other agencies and departments assigned full time to civil defense duties. The State Personnel Board may charge for such services rendered, the fee to be consistent with the cost of coverage per state employee multiplied by the number of local employees covered. Fees thus received shall be credited to the General Fund. Any director so appointed may be removed by the appointing body for incompetence, misconduct, neglect of duty, disloyalty or subversive activity. Each local organization for civil defense shall perform civil defense functions within the territorial limits of the political subdivision within which it is organized, and, in addition, shall conduct such functions outside of such territorial limits as may be required pursuant to section 60. Counties shall have concurrent responsibility for civil defense in the unorganized territories within the respective counties.

Duly appointed law enforcement officers of local, state and sheriffs organizations are empowered to enforce any of the provisions of this chapter or any rules or regulations promulgated thereunder in times of an emergency or during authorized alerts, including partial or full mobilization necessary to carry out section 57. It shall be unlawful for any individual to fail or refuse to comply with any just or reasonable order relative to the above from any such duly appointed law enforcement officer. Such failure to comply with such order shall constitute a misdemeanor.

Duly appointed civil defense law enforcement officers of local, state and sheriffs organizations shall have power to make arrests of persons found in violation of any provisions of this chapter or any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder in times of emergency necessary to carry out section 57.

§ 60. Mutual aid arrangements

The director of each local organization for civil defense shall, in collaboration with other public and private agencies within this State, develop or cause to be developed mutual aid arrangements for reciprocal civil defense aid and assistance in case of disaster too great to be dealt with unassisted. Such arrangements shall be consistent with the state civil defense program, and in time of emergency it shall be the duty of each local organization for civil defense to render assistance in accordance with such mutual aid arrangements, and for this purpose political subdivisions are authorized to enter into such mutual aid arrangements.

Each political subdivision, when geographical locations make mutual aid arrangements desirable, may, subject to the approval of the state director, enter into mutual aid arrangements with civil defense aid and assistance in case of disaster or catastrophe too great to be dealt with unassisted.

§ 61. Immunity

Neither the State nor any political subdivision thereof, nor other agencies, including the voluntary and uncompensated grantor of a permit for the use of his premises as a civil defense shelter, engaged in any civil defense activities, while complying with or attempting to comply with this chapter or any other rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this chapter, shall be liable for the death of or any injury to persons, or damage to property, as a result of such activity. This section shall not affect the right of any person to receive benefits to which he or she would otherwise be entitled under this chapter, or under the Workmen's Compensation Law, or under any pension law, nor the right of any such person to receive any benefits or compensation under any Act of Congress.

§ 62. Appropriations and acceptance of aid; authority of state director

Each political subdivision shall have the power to make appropriations in the manner provided by law for making appropriations for the ordinary expenses of such political subdivision for the payment of expenses of its local organization for civil defense. In making such appropriations, such political subdivision shall specify the amounts and purposes for which the moneys so provided may be used by the local organizations for civil defense.

Whenever the Federal Government or any agency or officer thereof or any person, firm or corporation shall offer to the State or to any political sub-

CHAPTER 4
INTERSTATE CIVIL DEFENSE AND DISASTER COMPACT

§ 91. Purpose—Article I

The purpose of this compact is to provide mutual aid among the states in meeting any emergency or disaster from enemy attack or other cause, natural or otherwise, including sabotage and subversive acts and direct attacks by bombs, shellfire and atomic, radiological, chemical and bacteriological means, and other weapons. The prompt, full and effective utilization of the resources of the respective states, including such resources as may be available from the United States Government or any other source, are essential to the safety, care and welfare of the people thereof in the event of enemy action or other emergency, and any other resources, including personnel, equipment or supplies, shall be incorporated into a plan or plans of mutual aid to be developed among the civil defense agencies or similar bodies of the states that are parties hereto. The directors of civil defense of all party states shall constitute a committee to formulate plans and take all necessary steps for the implementation of this compact.

§ 92. Standards; rules and regulations—Article II

It shall be the duty of each party state to formulate civil defense plans and programs for application within such state. There shall be frequent consultation between the representatives of the states and with the United States Government and the free exchange of information and plans, including inventories of any materials and equipment available for civil defense. In carrying out such civil defense plans and programs the party states shall so far as possible provide and follow uniform standards, practices and rules and regulations including:

1. Insignia. Insignia, arm bands and any other distinctive articles to designate and distinguish the different civil defense services;

7. Traffic. The conduct of civilians and the movement and cessation of movement of pedestrian and vehicular traffic, prior, during and subsequent to drills or attacks;

8. Public meetings. The safety of public meetings or gatherings; and

9. Support units. Mobile support units.

§ 93. Request for mutual aid—Article III

Any party state requested to render mutual aid shall take such action as is necessary to provide and make available the resources covered by this compact in accordance with the terms hereof. It is understood that the state rendering aid may withhold resources to the extent necessary to provide reasonable protection for such state. Each party state shall extend to the civil defense forces of any other party state, while operating within its state limits under the terms and conditions of this compact, the same powers, except that of arrest unless specifically authorized by the receiving state, duties, rights, privileges and immunities as if they were performing their duties in the state in which normally employed or rendering services, civil defense forces will continue under the command and control of their regular leaders but the organizational units will come under the operational control of the civil defense authorities of the state receiving assistance.

§ 94. Special skills—Article IV

Whenever any person holds a license, certificate or other permit issued by any state evidencing the meeting of qualifications for professional, mechanical or other skills such person may render aid involving such skill in any party state to meet an emergency or disaster and such state shall give due recognition to such license, certificate or other permit as if issued in the state in which aid is rendered.

§ 95. Liability—Article V

No party state or its officers or employees rendering aid in another state pursuant to this compact shall be liable on account of any act or omission in good faith on the part of such forces while so engaged, or on account of the maintenance or use of any equipment or supplies in connection therewith.

§ 96. Supplementary agreements—Article VI

Inasmuch as it is probable that the pattern and detail of the machinery for mutual aid among 2 or more states may differ from that appropriate among other states party hereto, this instrument contains elements of a broad base common to all states, and nothing herein contained shall preclude any state from entering into supplementary agreements with another state or states. Such supplementary agreements may comprehend, but shall not be limited to, provisions for evacuation and reception of injured and other persons, and the exchange of medical, fire, police, public utility, reconnaissance, welfare, transportation and communications personnel, equipment and supplies.

§ 97. Compensation and death benefits—Article VII

Each party state shall provide for the payment of compensation and death benefits to injured members of the civil defense forces of that state and the representatives of deceased members of such forces in case such members sustain injuries or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this compact, in the same manner and on the same terms as if the injury or death were sustained within such state.

§ 98. Reimbursement—Article VIII

Any party state rendering aid in another state pursuant to this compact shall be reimbursed by the party state receiving such aid for any loss or damage to, or expense incurred in the operation of any equipment answering a request for aid, and for the cost incurred in connection with such requests. Any aiding party state may assume in whole or in part such loss, damage, expense or other cost, or may loan such equipment or donate such services to the receiving party state without charge or cost. Any 2 or more party states may enter into supplementary agreements establishing a different allocation of costs as among those states. The United States Government may relieve the party state receiving aid from any liability and reimburse the party state supplying civil defense forces for the compensation paid to and the transportation, subsistence and maintenance expenses of such forces during the time of the rendition of such aid or assistance outside the state and may pay fair and reasonable compensation for the use or utilization of the supplies, materials, equipment or facilities so utilized or consumed.

§ 99. Evacuation—Article IX

Plans for the orderly evacuation and reception of the civilian population as the result of an emergency or disaster shall be worked out from time to time between representatives of the party states and the various local civil defense areas thereof. Such plans shall include the manner of transporting such evacuees, the number of evacuees to be received in different areas, the manner in which food, clothing, housing and medical care will be provided, the registration of the evacuees, the providing of facilities for the notification of relatives or friends and the forwarding of such evacuees to other areas or the bringing in of additional materials, supplies and all other relevant factors. Such plans shall provide that the party state receiving evacuees shall be reimbursed generally for the out-of-pocket expenses incurred in receiving and caring for such evacuees, for expenditures for transportation, food, clothing, medicines and medical care and like items. Such expenditures shall be reimbursed by the party state of which the evacuees are residents, or by the United States Government under plans approved by it. After the termination of the emergency or disaster, the party state of which the evacuees are resident shall assume the responsibility for the ultimate support or repatriation of such evacuees.

§ 100. Availability of compact—Article X

This compact shall be available to any state, territory or possession of the United States, and the District of Columbia. The term “state” may include any neighboring foreign country or province or state thereof.

Duly authenticated copies of this compact and of such supplementary agreements as may be entered into shall, at the time of their approval, be deposited with each of the party states and with the civil defense agency and other appropriate agencies of the United States Government.

§ 103. Withdrawal—Article XIII

This compact shall continue in force and remain binding on each party state until the legislature or the governor of such party state takes action to withdraw therefrom. Such action shall not be effective until 30 days after notice thereof has been sent by the governor of the party state desiring to withdraw to the governors of all other party states.

§ 104. Construction and separability of provisions—Article XIV

This compact shall be construed to effectuate the purposes stated in Article I. If any provision of this compact is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

§ 105. Approval of compact

The Governor is authorized to approve the Interstate Civil Defense and Disaster Compact and after approving the same shall cause it to be filed with the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall cause certified or exemplified copies thereof to be forwarded and deposited with all interested governmental agencies as required by Public Law 920, 81st Congress, or with other states, governments or political subdivisions thereof as may be necessary or desirable under statutes of this State.

CHAPTER 6SABOTAGE PREVENTION*§ 161. Short title

This chapter may be cited as the “Sabotage Prevention Act.”

If conduct prohibited by this chapter is made unlawful by another or other laws, the offender may be convicted for the violation of this chapter or of such other law or laws.

§ 163. Rights of labor unaffected

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to impair, curtail or destroy the lawful rights of employees and their representatives to self-organization, to form, join or assist labor organizations, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, to strike, to picket and to engage in concerted activities for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection.

Any such person who shall be captured or arrested by the military forces of such other state while in this State shall without unnecessary delay be surrendered to the military or police forces of this State to be dealt with according to law. This section shall not be construed so as to make unlawful any arrest in this State which would otherwise be lawful.

Whenever a state of war shall exist or shall be imminent between the United States of America and any foreign country, the Governor may by proclamation direct and require every subject or citizen of such foreign country within this State to appear within 24 hours after such proclamation or within 24 hours after his arrival in this State whichever is later before such public authorities as the Governor may in such proclamation direct, and then and there such subject or citizen of such foreign country shall personally register his name, residence, business, length of stay and such information as the Governor may from time to time in such proclamation prescribe. In case of insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot, mob or body of men acting together by force with intent to commit a felony, or to offer violence to persons or property, or by force and violence to break and resist the laws of this State or the United States, or of imminent danger thereof, or in the event of public disaster resulting from flood, conflagration or tempests, the Governor shall have the power to order into the active service of the State or in aid of any civil authority the National Guard or other authorized state military or naval forces or any part thereof that he may deem proper. Whenever the National Guard of this State or a part thereof is ordered into federal service under the Constitution and laws of the United States, the Governor shall, unless the order specifies otherwise, order out for service the National Guard or other authorized state military or naval forces or such part thereof as may be required; and if the number available be insufficient he shall order out the unorganized militia or such part as may be necessary. The designation of organizations ordered into the service of the United States shall not, during such service, be given to new organizations.

Whenever any portion of such unorganized militia shall be ordered into the service of the State they shall be mustered into the service for such period as the Governor may direct. Such unorganized militia when so ordered into active service shall have, as far as practicable, the same system of organization, equipment, training and discipline as

§ 211. Civil or criminal liability; defense

No member of the militia ordered into the active service of the State shall be liable civilly or criminally for any act done, or caused, ordered or directed to be done, by him in furtherance of and while in the performance of his military duty. When an action or proceeding of any nature shall be commenced in any court by any person against any officer or enlisted man of the militia for any act so done, or caused, ordered or directed to be done, all the expenses of the defense of such proceeding or action, civil or criminal, including fees of witnesses for the defense, defendant's court costs, and all costs for transcripts of records and abstract thereof on appeal, shall be paid by the State, out of the Military Fund. It shall be the duty of the Attorney General, either personally or by one or more assistants to defend such officer or soldier. Where the action or proceeding is criminal, the Adjutant General shall designate a judge advocate of the National Guard or other authorized state military or naval forces to conduct the defense of such member, or if the services of a judge advocate be not available, then he shall select some other competent attorney to conduct such defense, and the judge advocate or other attorney so selected shall receive and be paid out of the Military Fund a reasonable compensation for his professional services. In any such action or proceeding the defendant may require the person instituting or prosecuting the same to file security for payment of costs that may be awarded the defendant, which costs, if recovered in action, the costs whereof have been paid out of the Military Fund, shall be paid into the State Treasury for the benefit of the Military Fund. The defendant may, in every such action or proceeding, make a general denial and give the special matter in evidence.

§ 212. Power of the Governor to organize staff

The Governor may create, organize, abolish or reorganize such staff departments as he may deem necessary or appropriate to provide for the National Guard or other authorized state military or naval forces, and appoint such staff officers as may be necessary to provide for the operation of such staff departments.
