In accordance with long-standing policy and practice of the State of Maine, the purpose of this Act is to facilitate the flow of traffic on the highways and turnpikes of the State and to guide the users thereof to a major recreational area of the State.

Evergreen Valley is an area situated in the Towns of Stoneham and Lovell in which are located lakes, mountains and rivers and where uses such as boating, swimming, canoeing, hunting, fishing, hiking, skiing, mountain climbing, ski-mobiling and most forms of outdoor recreation for all seasons of the year have been developing and are developing.

Evergreen Valley is rapidly increasing in popularity and the proposed amendment would be of great service to the travelling public.
