AN ACT Relating to Amendments to Charters of Certain Corporations Without Capital Stock.

Be it enacted by the people of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 13, § 934, amended. The first sentence of section 934 of Title 13 of the Revised Statutes, as repealed and replaced by section 1 of chapter 373 of the public laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other method provided by law, a corporation organized without capital stock, including specially chartered churches, but not other specially chartered corporations, may change the number of its officers, directors, trustees or managing board, however designated, and ~~if not specially chartered~~ change its purposes by altering, abridging or enlarging the same, and make any other changes in its certificate of organization as originally filed or subsequently amended that may be desired, provided such changes would be proper to insert in an original certificate of organization.
