Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 29, § 246, amended. The first sentence of the last paragraph of section 246 of Title 29 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by chapter 362 of the public laws of 1969, is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

When a truck is already registered, the owner may receive a short-term permit allowing him to haul loads of larger tonnage for a limited period of 8 months or less. These short-term permits may be obtained, upon payment of the required fee, from any branch office of the Motor Vehicle Division of the Department of State, from such troop barracks of the Maine State Police as shall be designated by mutual agreement of the Commissioner of Public Safety and the Secretary of State, or from any agent of the Secretary of State who has been appointed for that specific purpose. Such agents appointed by the Secretary of State may charge any applicant for a short-term permit $1 extra over and above the required permit fee and may retain said dollar as his compensation for performing this function.
