AN ACT to Authorize the Commissioners of York County to Make Certain Payments from the Contingent Account.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Services rendered to York County; payment authorized. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commissioners of York County are hereby authorized to make the following payments from the Contingent Account for services rendered to York County from January 1, 1975, to April 30, 1975, to the following persons:

Roland A. Cole, special counsel for the York County commissioners	$1,700
Kenneth Norton, business administrator for the York County commissioners	$2,550

However, nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing the establishment or continuation of these positions.

STATEMENT OF FACT

The purpose of this amendment is to authorize the commissioners of York County to make certain payments from the Contingent Account to Roland A. Cole, special counsel for the York County commissioners and Kenneth Norton, business administrator for the York County commissioners, for services rendered.
