STATEMENT OF FACT

In 1972, the voters of Richmond voted to construct a new Junior High School facility to replace the Emerson (Circa 1880) Grammar School. This vote was taken prior to the passing of L. D. 1994 and its related benefits. At the town meeting of March, 1974, the voters passed a budget increasing the offering to its youth to include new programs — Industrial Arts, Home Economics, Physical Education, Guidance, Librarian and Vocational Special Education, plus its related ancillary services. At the time of the passing of the budget for 1974, it was assumed that L. D. 1994 would continue. L. D. 1994 contained provisions for the funding of the above-mentioned programs.

Now, after passage of the 1975 Richmond budget, L. D. 1452 was passed which delays the funding of the above-mentioned new programs. This leaves the school department the alternative of seeking another source of funds or curtailing programs at Richmond Junior High School which are common to surrounding schools and thereby denying Richmond students of an equal educational opportunity which the youths of its neighboring towns take for granted.
