Sec. 24. Amendatory clause. Any reference in this Act to the Executive Council shall be deleted from this Act as of January 4, 1977.'

Statement of Fact

This bill clarifies the Fish and Game Laws by:

1. Making the manner of appointing the Commissioner's Advisory Council consistent with the abolition of the Executive Council;
2. Adding a statutory provision to help defray the cost of raising pheasants;
3. Making certain changes to the statutes governing the taking of inland fish;
4. Eliminating the special license for dealers in live smelts;
5. Clarifying the statute governing hunting and fishing licenses for servicemen permanently stationed in Maine;
6. Reallocating the provision governing the penalty for molesting furs or traps;
7. Reinstating a statutory paragraph inadvertently repealed; and
8. Clarifying statutory provisions governing collisions of motor vehicles with deer or moose, governing negligent shooting of domestic animals and governing the training of dogs used to hunt raccoons in order to make these provisions more enforceable.
9. Prohibiting the swapping of stamps that is now a very common practice.
