STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
SEVENTY-SEVEN

AN ACT Establishing the Offense of Illegal Transportation of Alcoholic Beverages Onto or Off of the Premises of a Licensee Licensed for On-premise Consumption.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

28 MRSA § 1061 is enacted to read:

§ 1061. Illegal transportation of alcoholic beverages

1. Transportation on or off premises. Any person who transports alcoholic beverages onto or off of the premises of a licensee licensed for the sale of spiritous, vinous or malt liquor, or any combination of those liquors, to be consumed on the premises, shall be guilty of a Class E crime.

2. Defense. It is a defense to a prosecution under this section that the transportation was authorized or permitted by the licensee, the licensee's agent or the licensee's employee.

STATEMENT OF FACT

This bill establishes the offense of illegal transportation of alcoholic beverages on or off of the licensed premises of a licensee licensed for on-premises consumption.
