3. Any person who was a party to the hearing may appeal from an order of the superintendent within 30 days after receipt of notice. Any person not a party to the hearing whose interests are substantially and directly affected and who is aggrieved by an order of the superintendent may appeal within 40 days from the date the decision was rendered. If the appeal is taken from the superintendent's failure or refusal to act, the petition for review shall be filed within 6 months of the expiration of the time within which the action should reasonably have occurred.

4. The appeal shall be heard as a matter of right, and shall be instituted by filing a petition for review in the Superior Court of Kennebec County or in any county where:

In addition, the motion shall explain the reasons for the relief requested and the facts relied upon, which facts, if subject to dispute, shall be supported by affidavits. Reasonable notice of the motion for stay shall be given to all parties to the administrative proceeding. The court may condition this relief upon the posting of a bond or other appropriate security, except that no bond or security shall be required of the State or any official thereof.

8. Judicial review from an order of the superintendent shall be confined to the record upon which the administrative decision was based, subject to the exceptions set forth in the Maine Administrative Procedure Act, Title 5, section 11006. The reviewing court may require or permit subsequent corrections of the record.

9. Following review by oral and written argument the court may:

- A. Affirm the decision of the superintendent;

 - (5) Unsupported by substantial evidence on the record; or
 - (6) Arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion.

The reviewing court shall not substitute its judgement for that of the superintendent on questions of fact.

10. The superintendent and all other parties to the review proceeding in Superior Court may obtain review of the court's judgment by appeal to the Supreme Judicial Court sitting as the law court. The appeal shall be taken in other civil cases.

STATEMENT OF FACT

Except as mentioned below, the purpose of this bill is to conform the state statutes to the Maine Administrative Procedure Act, which was adopted in the first regular session of the 108th Legislature. The Maine Administrative Procedures Act applies generally to all agencies of State Government.

Included in the bill are several suggested amendments to the Maine Administrative Procedure Act itself.

1. Sections 4, 37 and 39 contain amendments which empower the Administrative Court to hear cases brought by an agency that wishes to refuse renewal of an existing license, 4 and 39, and give agencies an option in that situation to conduct its own hearing or proceed in the Administrative Court, 37. Refusals to renew a license usually occur for the same reasons as a revocation or suspension, which must be done in the court.

Section 39 also adds language to the section in Title 5 describing the Administrative Court's jurisdiction to make it consistent with the jurisdictional provision now contained in Title 4, section 1151.

2. Section 4 also limits the power of licensing agencies to reinstate a license revoked, suspended or modified by the Administrative Court pursuant to action by the Attorney General, without the approval of the Attorney General.

3. Sections 5 and 11 provide direct review of Administrative Court decisions in the Supreme Judicial Court sitting as the law court, rather than have an intermediate appeal to the Superior Court.

4. Section 6, 7, 8 and 9 remove remaining references to a "contested" case in the Administrative Court, which was a defined term under the former Administrative Code, not carried forward into the Maine Administrative Procedure Act.

5. Section 10 corrects an oversight: The requirement that application be made to the Superior Court for enforcement of an Administrative Court subpoena was included in earlier drafts of the Maine Administrative Procedure Act when the court was not a part of the judicial branch.

6. Sections 30 and 32 clarify the definition of "rule" by limiting the scope of the word "sanction" to those available in a court of law.

7. Section 31 clarifies the fact that internal management policies are not "rules," whether interagency or intra-agency in application.

8. Section 33 assures that the provisions of the Maine Administrative Procedure Act will prevail over any inconsistent provisions of other statutes, unless the statutes specifically provides otherwise.

9. Section 34 provides that matters subject to the Maine Administrative Procedure Act and pending in an agency on the effective date of the Maine Administrative Procedure Act will be concluded under the laws in effect when they were begun.

10. Section 35 requires agencies to readopt rules made prior to the effective date of the Maine Administrative Procedure Act if public notice and an opportunity for a hearing were not provided.

11. Section 36 substantially reduces the penalty for violating an agency subpoena and makes it identical to the penalty for violating a court subpoena.

12. Section 38 expands the circumstances under which agencies may revoke, suspend or refuse to renew a license, including general authorizations to act when the health or physical safety of any person is immediately threatened and when the action is based upon a physical test, examination or inspection by a state-certified inspector.

13. Section 40 limits the circumstances when judicial review of final agency decisions will be unavailable to those where a statute has specifically precluded such review or specifically limited the issues reviewable.
