L.D. 1100

STATE OF MAINE
SENATE (Filing No. S-132)
109TH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" to S.P. 352, L.D. 1100, Bill, "AN ACT to Partially Exempt Musicians from Coverage for Unemployment Insurance."

Amend the bill by striking out everything after the enacting clause and inserting in its place the following:

'26 MRSA §1043, sub-§11, ¶F, sub-¶(33) as enacted by PL 1979, c. 94, is repealed and the following enacted in its place:

(33) Services performed by a member or leader of a musical group, band or orchestra or an entertainer when the services are performed under terms of a contract entered into by the leader or an agent of the musical group, band, orchestra or entertainer with an employing unit for whom the services are being performed, provided the leader or agent is not an employer by reason of subsection 9 or of section 1222, subsection 3.'

Fiscal Note

This legislation would reduce a minimal amount of funds in a dedicated revenue account within the Department of Manpower Affairs.

Statement of Fact

The purpose of this amendment is to expand the group of entertainers who would be exempt from unemployment insurance coverage.

Reported by the Committee on Labor.
Reproduced and distributed pursuant to Senate Rule 11-A.
