'§2152-B. Residency requirement; ordinances and collective bargaining

A municipality shall not enact any ordinance which requires employees to reside within the boundaries of the municipality as a condition of employment, nor shall collective bargaining agreements contain these strict requirements. A municipality may, however, negotiate collective bargaining agreements or, if the municipality does not engage in collective bargaining, enact ordinances that require employees to reside within a specified distance or a specific response time of a facility where those provisions represent a legitimate job requirement, and providing that the provisions shall not apply to employees already employed at the time the provisions become effective.

This section applies only to public employees, as defined in Title 26, section 962, subsection 6.
