Sec. 3. Bonds. funds То provide for the renovation of and addition to the detention facility, the treasurer of Lincoln County, with the approval of the county commissioners, may borrow from time to time upon the full faith and credit of the county such sums not exceeding in the aggregate $400,000 may be necessary, and may issue self-liquidating bonds therefor which shall bear on their face the words "Lincoln County Capital Improvement Bonds Act of 1983." Each authorized issue shall be payable in such annual installments, beginning not more than years from the date thereof and not earlier than the year 1986, as will extinguish each loan in not more than 20 years from its date. The bonds shall be signed by the treasurer of the county and countersigned by the majority of the county commissioners. The county may sell these securities at public or private sale upon such terms and conditions as the county commissioners may deem proper, but at not less than par and accrued interest. These bonds shall be valid without first obtaining the consent of that county as provided in the Revised Statutes, Title 30, section 404.

Sec. 4. Temporary notes. The county treasurer, with the approval of the county commissioners, may issue temporary notes of the county, payable in not more than one year from their dates, in anticipation of the issue of serial bonds under this Act and may renew the notes, but the time within which these serial bonds shall become due and payable shall not, by reason of these temporary notes, be extended beyond the term fixed by this Act. Any notes issued in anticipation of the serial bonds shall be paid from the proceeds thereof.
