Amend the amendment in subsection 1-A in paragraph B in the next to the last line (page 1, line 25 in amendment) by striking out the underlined word "mankind" and inserting in its place the underlined words 'a reasonable and prudent person'

The purpose of this amendment is to make a slight change in the wording of the section describing conduct manifesting a deparaved indifference to human life. This change was suggested by an Assistant Attorney General who believes the use of the "reasonable and prudent person" standard here provides consistency and clarity.
