Resolved: That this resolve shall become effective 90 days after the Legislature adjourns, but shall not become operative until an appropriate history of the person to whom the bridge is designated has been filed with the Department of Transportation, the Maine State Archives and the local and state historical societies.'

This committee of conference amendment restores the original language of the bill and further provides that the resolve will become effective, but not operative until an adequate history of the person being honored has been filed where the public may come to know the historical significance of the designee.
