Enactment of this bill will result in the Department of Conservation conveying real property to the Town of Jackman for no monetary consideration, with a restriction to continue outdoor recreation. The State purchased the property for $24,000 in 1970. The property will revert to the State in the event that the property is not used for public recreational purposes which will reduce the market value of the land to the Town of Jackman. The Bureau of Public Lands will absorb the costs related to the conveyance of the property, using existing resources.'
