MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the

LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY

at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library

http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib

Reproduced from scanned originals with text recognition applied (searchable text may contain some errors and/or omissions)

115th MAINE LEGISLATURE

FIRST REGULAR SESSION-1991

Legislative Document

No. 940

H.P. 661

House of Representatives, March 6, 1991

Received by the Clerk of the House on March 4, 1991. Referred to the Committee on Education and 1400 ordered printed pursuant to Joint Rule 14.

EDWIN H. PERT, Clerk

Presented by Representative FARNSWORTH of Hallowell.

Cosponsored by Senator CLARK of Cumberland, Senator BUSTIN of Kennebec and Representative HICHENS of Eliot.

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-ONE

An Act to Increase the Availability of Sign Language Training.

	Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:
2	Sec. 1. 1 MRSA §132 is enacted to read:
4
	§132. Deaf Culture Week
6
	The Governor shall annually issue a proclamation setting
8	aside the last full week in September as Deaf Culture Week. The proclamation must invite and urge the people of the State to 10	observe the week in schools and other suitable places with appropriate ceremony and study. The Department of Education 12	shall make appropriate information available to the people and the schools within its budget.
14
	Sec. 2. 1 MRSA §219 is enacted to read:
16	·
	§219. Official state language of the deaf community
18	`
	American sign language is the official state language of the 20	deaf community.
	doct Community .
22	Sec. 3. 20-A MRSA §4708 is enacted to read:
22	become at the manager garden is endected to ledge.
24	§4708. Sign_language
4	2x100° pram randwade
26	A school administration unit shall offer an annual source of
26	A school administration unit shall offer an annual course of instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary
26 28	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult
28	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary
	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction.
28 30	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign
28	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is
28 30 32	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as
28 30	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is
28 30 32 34	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf.
28 30 32	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as
28 30 32 34	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines that the student enrollment in a course instruction in sign
28 30 32 34	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines
28 30 32 34 36	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines that the student enrollment in a course instruction in sign
28 30 32 34 36	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines that the student enrollment in a course instruction in sign language is insufficient in any year the course is offered, it
28 30 32 34 36 38	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines that the student enrollment in a course instruction in sign language is insufficient in any year the course is offered, it
28 30 32 34 36 38	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines that the student enrollment in a course instruction in sign language is insufficient in any year the course is offered, it may withdraw that course from the curriculum.
28 30 32 34 36 38	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines that the student enrollment in a course instruction in sign language is insufficient in any year the course is offered, it may withdraw that course from the curriculum. Sec. 4. 20-A MRSA §4726, as amended by PL 1985, c. 178, is
28 30 32 34 36 38	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines that the student enrollment in a course instruction in sign language is insufficient in any year the course is offered, it may withdraw that course from the curriculum. Sec. 4. 20-A MRSA §4726, as amended by PL 1985, c. 178, is further amended to read:
28 30 32 34 36 38 40	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines that the student enrollment in a course instruction in sign language is insufficient in any year the course is offered, it may withdraw that course from the curriculum. Sec. 4. 20-A MRSA §4726, as amended by PL 1985, c. 178, is
28 30 32 34 36 38 40 42	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines that the student enrollment in a course instruction in sign language is insufficient in any year the course is offered, it may withdraw that course from the curriculum. Sec. 4. 20-A MRSA §4726, as amended by PL 1985, c. 178, is further amended to read: §4726. Foreign languages
28 30 32 34 36 38 40	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines that the student enrollment in a course instruction in sign language is insufficient in any year the course is offered, it may withdraw that course from the curriculum. Sec. 4. 20-A MRSA §4726, as amended by PL 1985, c. 178, is further amended to read:
28 30 32 34 36 38 40 42 44	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines that the student enrollment in a course instruction in sign language is insufficient in any year the course is offered, it may withdraw that course from the curriculum. Sec. 4. 20-A MRSA §4726, as amended by PL 1985, c. 178, is further amended to read: §4726. Foreign languages Each school administrative unit:
28 30 32 34 36 38 40 42	instruction in sign language either as part of its secondary school curriculum or as part of the curriculum in an adult education course of instruction. 1. Course requirements. The course of instruction in sign language must identify what type of signed communication is offered and must be taught by a qualified instructor as determined by the Governor Baxter School for the Deaf. 2. Exception. If the school administration unit determines that the student enrollment in a course instruction in sign language is insufficient in any year the course is offered, it may withdraw that course from the curriculum. Sec. 4. 20-A MRSA §4726, as amended by PL 1985, c. 178, is further amended to read: §4726. Foreign languages

	2. Encouraged to offer. Is encouraged to offer one or more
2	additional foreign languages as part of its secondary school program +- and .
4
	3AmericansignlanguageMayofferAmericansign
6	languagetefulfilltheforeignlanguagerequirementunder subsection-2.
8	American sign language is a foreign language and may be
10	offered to fulfill the requirements of this section.
12	Sec. 5. 20-A MRSA §4805, sub-§8 is enacted to read:
14	8. Deaf Culture Week. Deaf Culture Week is the last full week in September in accordance with Title 1, section 132.
16
18	Sec. 6. 20-A MRSA $\S5204$, sub- $\S6$, as amended by PL 1983, c. 859, Pt. C, $\S\S6$ and 7, is further amended to read:
20	6. Insufficient courses; time limitations. If the secondary school does not offer 2 approved foreign language
22	courses, then its students may attend another secondary school
24	approved for tuition purposes to take the language courses provided that:
4	provided chac:
26	A. The receiving school accepts tuition students;
28	B. The students meet the qualifications for attending their
30	own secondary school; and
30	C. The students have notified their own school
3 2	administrative unit by April 1st, before the start of each school year, that they wish to take the foreign language not 34	being offered by their school administrative unit. Their school administrative unit shall notify them on or before
36	July 15th of that year when the language course will be
38	offered in the next school year.
, 0	American sign language is a foreign language and may be the basis
10	for students attending another secondary school for purposes of this subsection.
.2	Sec. 7. 20-A MRSA §10711 is enacted to read:
14	§10711. American sign language
16) weeks word and another sampling in the thetical
8	A postsecondary degree-granting educational institution shall recognize American sign language as a foreign language for the purposes of:
50

	1. Entrance requirements. Meeting a foreign language
2	requirement for entering students if the educational institution has such an entrance requirement; and 4
	2. Offering courses. Offering courses in foreign languages
6	for academic credit if the educational institution offers foreign language courses.
8
10
	STATEMENT OF FACT
12	mn
14	The purpose of this bill is to improve the availability of and access to qualified interpreters for the deaf to ensure
14	effective communication between deaf and hearing people. To
16	accomplish this purpose the bill:
10	decompilish ents purpose the bill.
18	1. Designates American sign language as the official state language of the deaf community;
20
٠.	2. Requires school administration units to offer at least
22	annually a course of instruction in signed communication in their secondary schools or as part of adult education programs;
24
	3. Requires that, since people who communicate in both
26	American sign language and English are truly bilingual, American sign language be considered a foreign language for courses of 28	instruction in foreign languages in secondary schools and for
30	entrance requirements and course offerings for academic credit in postsecondary degree-granting educational institutions; and
30	postsecondary degree-granting educational institutions; and
32	4. Establishes Deaf Culture Week, which is the last full week in September, as a commemorative week and special school