No. 1265

S.P. 408

In Senate, April 15, 1993

Resolve, Authorizing Philip E. Wolley to Bring Suit against the State.

Reference to the Committee on Legal Affairs suggested and ordered printed.

JOY J. O'BRIEN Secretary of the Senate

Presented by Senator BALDACCI of Penobscot.

Sec. 1. Authorization to sue the State. Resolved: That, notwithstanding any statute or common law to the contrary, Philip E. Wolley, or his legal representative, who claims to have suffered damages as a result of having been wrongfully prosecuted by the State on criminal charges that were subsequently dismissed by the State, is authorized to bring a civil action against the State of Maine, but not against individual past or present employees of the State.

This action may be brought in the Penobscot County Superior Court within one year from the date this resolve is approved. Liability and damages, including punitive damages, must be determined according to state law as in litigation between individuals. The action may be heard by a Justice of the Superior Court or by a jury. The Maine Rules of Civil Procedure govern the conduct of the action. The Attorney General shall appear, answer and defend the action.

The Treasurer of State shall pay any judgment, including costs and interest, on final process issued by the Superior Court or, if applicable, the Supreme Judicial Court. Recovery may not exceed $75,000, including costs and interest.

STATEMENT OF FACT

This resolve authorizes Philip E. Wolley to sue the State for the costs and expenses that he allegedly incurred in connection with his dismissal from employment. Mr. Wolley was accused of misappropriation of funds and discharged from his position with the State Lottery Commission. The charge was later dismissed.
