2	This registration requirement remains in effect for 15 years from the date of:
6	A. Sentencing if no period of institutional confinement is to be served; or
8	B. Discharge or conditional release from a state correctional facility, a state mental health institute or a
10	county jail.
12	If a sex offender on conditional release violates a condition of that release and is returned to institutional confinement, the
14	sex offender's duty to register terminates. The registration
16	requirement begins again and remains in effect for 15 years from the date of the sex offender's new conditional release or
1.8	discharge.
20	3. Change of address. If a sex offender required to register under this subchapter changes address, that person shall

	COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "/" to S.P. 551, L.D. 1510
	A sex offender may not petition for waiver of the 2	registration requirement until at least 5 years after the sex offender is first required to register.
4
	A sex offender may petition once a year for waiver of the 6	registration requirement.
8	Before waiving the registration requirement, the court must
Ü	determine that the sex offender has shown a reasonable
10	likelihood that registration is no longer necessary and
10	waiver of the registration requirement is appropriate. The 12	court shall consider the sex offender's progress in
~ •	treatment and may request an independent forensic evaluation
14	provided through the State Forensic Service. If the court orders an independent forensic evaluation, the court shall 1.6	reimburse the State Forensic Service for the cost of the evaluation and order the sex offender to reimburse the court
1.8	for the cost of the evaluation; or 20	D. The sentencing court, for good cause shown, waives the registration requirement.

	7. Violation. A sex offender who fails to register or 24	update the information required under this section commits a Class D crime, except that a violation of this section when the 2.6	sex offender has 2 or more prior Maine convictions for violations of this section or 2 or more prior Maine convictions for 2.8	violations of section 11003 is a Class C crime. For purposes of this subsection, the dates of both of the prior convictions must 30	precede the commission of the offense being enhanced by no more than 10 years, although both prior convictions may have occurred 3.2	on the same day. The date of the conviction is deemed to be the date that sentence is imposed, even though an appeal was taken.
34	The date of a commission of a prior offense is presumed to be that stated in the complaint, information or indictment, 3.6	notwithstanding the use of the words "on or about" or the equivalent. It is an affirmative defense that the failure to 3.8	register or update information resulted from just cause.

40	APPROPRIATIONS/ALLOCATIONS
42	Other Funds $200,000

46	This bill may increase prosecutions for Class C and Class D crimes. Sentences of more than 9 months imposed for Class C crimes must be served in a state correctional institution. The
48	cost to the State per sentence is $55,711 based upon an average length of stay of one year and 10 months. The State also must reimburse counties for sentences served in county jails of 9 months or less for Class C crimes.

If a jail sentence is imposed for Class D crimes, the additional costs to the counties are estimated to be $83.70 per day per prisoner. These costs are not reimbursed by the State. The number of prosecutions that may result in a jail sentence and the resulting costs to the county jail system are expected to be insignificant.

The Judicial Department may require additional General Fund appropriations to cover indigent defense costs related to these new cases. The amounts can not be estimated at this time. The additional workload and administrative costs associated with the minimal number of new cases filed in the court system can be absorbed within the budgeted resources of the Judicial Department. The collection of additional fines may also increase General Fund revenue by minor amounts.

This bill includes a Federal Expenditure Fund allocation of $200,000 for fiscal year 1996-97 for the Department of Corrections to provide sex offender treatment services if the federal revenue is received.

This bill requires municipal police and county sheriff departments to provide notification to victims of certain crimes and to members of the community. The additional costs of these state mandates can not be determined at this time.
